

GLEN ELDER

On the shores of Waconda Lake, one of Kansas' largest lakes, Glen Elder State Park offers nearly unlimited recreational opportunities. With its rural setting, Glen Elder is a perfect place to relax.

Modern restroom/shower buildings are open in Sioux, Kanza, and Cheyenne from April thru September. The Kanza shower may be open during the winter and early spring, depending on the weather.

A full service Marina provides fuel, boat and slip rental, boating, fishing and camping supplies. (Open Apr. 1st Through Oct. 31st.)

DAY USE

Take your pick- swimming, boating, hiking, volleyball, softball and bike riding. Volleyball and horseshoe equipment is available at the office.

Some areas to check out...

The Osage area has sand volleyball courts, a reservable group shelter, and a swimming beach. The Waconda Nature Trails are currently being developed. The Pawnee Overlook provides shoreline fishing, wading, primitive camping, picnicking, and an excellent view. A modern,

WILDLIFE

The park is also managed to enhance wildlife. Pheasant, deer, waterfowl, and numerous non-game species (including eagles during the winter) can be seen

CAMPING

With 3 campgrounds totaling 121 electrical hook-up sites, most with water, and over 300 primitive sites, there's plenty of room for both tents and RV's. Some areas receive minimal maintenance and service except during peak use times. Boat ramps in Kanza and Osage offer excellent lake access & ADA courtesy docks. For RV'ers, the park has two dump stations and a full service marina is open April thru October. Select facilities are open all year, including: utility hookups in Kanza and Cheyenne Campgrounds, primitive campgrounds, frost-free hydrants, trails, vault toilets, and the Hopewell Church.

New concrete camppads with secure tie downs, water, and 50 amp electricity are available in all campgrounds.
